

Bond University
Research Repository

An examination of the utility of criminal curfews as a policy response to youth crime in Australia

Goldsworthy, Terrence

Published: 07/06/2018

Document Version:
Publisher's PDF, also known as Version of record

Licence:
Free to read

Link to publication in Bond University research repository.

Recommended citation(APA):
Goldsworthy, T. (2018). An examination of the utility of criminal curfews as a policy response to youth crime in Australia. 55. 2018 Crime Prevention and Communities Conference, Melbourne, Australia.

General rights

Copyright and moral rights for the publications made accessible in the public portal are retained by the authors and/or other copyright owners and it is a condition of accessing publications that users recognise and abide by the legal requirements associated with these rights.

For more information, or if you believe that this document breaches copyright, please contact the Bond University research repository coordinator.

Crime Prevention and Communities conference—preliminary program

Thursday, 7 June 2018

Time	Duration
8.00 am	1:00	Registration and arrival tea and coffee
9.00 am	0:30	Official conference opening by Dr Rick Brown Deputy Director, Australian Institute of Criminology. Welcome to Country. Director of Australian Institute of Criminology Mr Michael Phelan APM. Minister for Police the Hon. Lisa Neville MP welcome video.
9.30 am	1:00	Keynote: Making communities safer: Translating evidence into practice Lorraine Mazerolle, University of Queensland Chair: Rick Brown
10.30 am	0:20	Morning tea
Session		Family and domestic violence	Youth crime prevention grants symposium	Technology	Science led prevention	Youth
Room		105/106 Plenary	104	103	102	101
Chair		Samantha Lyneham	Anika Dell	Christopher Dowling	Garner Clancey	Julianne Brennan
10.50 am	0:30	Domestic and family violence deaths in Queensland. Travis Heller, Coroners Court of Queensland	Caroline Henwood, Crime Statistics Agency Kay Lancefield and Scott Body, Federation University/Inner Gippsland Child Youth Area Partnership Jaime de Loma-Osorio Ricon and Abdullah Lary, Banksia Gardens Community Services Lewis Burnside, Youth Support and Advocacy Service Deborah Greenslade, Ballarat Community Health and Emily Nester, Berry Street	Police use of public space CCTV footage. Anthony Morgan, Australian Institute of Criminology	Child sexual exploitation—offender characterisation. Silvio Basile, Victoria Police	An examination of the utility of criminal curfews as a policy response to youth crime in Australia. Terry Goldsworthy, Bond University
11.20 am	0:30	Preventing recurrent violent behaviour perpetrated by youth. Michael Beilken, Victoria Police		Empowering communities to help tackle incitement. Andre Oboler, La Trobe University	Measuring incapacitation using predictive models. Callum Sleigh, New Zealand Ministry of Justice	Community around the child: What have we learnt about children in residential care? Renee O'Donnell, Monash University
11.50 am	0:30	Targeted, timely and graduated responses to domestic violence offending. Rick Brown, Australian Institute of Criminology		CCTV Partnership Program: Local government, WA Police Force and the community. Mathew Owens, Town of Victoria Park	Applying behavioural insights to improve public policy. Kate Phillips and Fiona Grinwald, Department of Premier and Cabinet	Beyond the black stump: New approaches to responding to youth crime. Luke Butcher, James Cook University and Mission Australia
12.20 pm	0:45	Lunch
1.05 pm	1:00	Keynote: Informal social control and crime prevention: Do the actions of ordinary citizens reduce crime? Rebecca Wickes, Monash University Chair: Rick Brown
2.05 pm	1:00	Youth panel: Mark Halsey, Flinders University; Jack Vandersteen, Dandenong Magistrates' Court; Carmel Guerra, Centre for Multicultural Youth; David Broderick, Victoria Police; Rebecca Wickes, Monash University. Chair: Rick Brown
3.05 pm	0:25	Afternoon tea
Session		Crime Prevention through Environmental Design (CPTED) place based prevention	Youth	Child exploitation	Partnerships	Science led prevention
Room		105/106 Plenary	104	103	102	101
Chair		Anika Dell	Anthony Morgan	Virginia Dods	Rick Brown	Ruth Liston
3.30 pm	0:30	Police perspectives of CPTED. Garner Clancey, University of Sydney	Translating evidence into practice: ReBoot Intensive Intervention Trial. Leanne Cornell-March, Helping Young People Achieve	Enhanced response to child sexual exploitation: Redefining police response to vulnerable child victims of sexual offending, Laura Meese, Victoria Police	Let us walk together (Koling wada ngal): 'Peer mentoring in the criminal justice system: An innovative, collaborative crime prevention partnership building a safe community'. Claire Seppings, Deakin University, and Wayne Harper, Victorian Department of	Yarra communities that care: Using data to develop and implement an action plan for the middle years. Alexandra Fraser, City of Yarra, Hieng Lim, Neighbourhood Justice Centre and Heidi Renner, Deakin University

Crime Prevention and Communities conference—preliminary program

					Justice and Regulation
4.00 pm	0:30	Flipping public space in Casey. Mark McGuire, City of Casey	Supporting the development of pro-social behaviours among young people in custody. Sarah Strathearn, South Australia Department for Communities and Social Inclusion	It takes a village—Evaluating the impact of a multi-disciplinary/family systems model for effectively working with children and young people with problematic or harmful sexual behaviour. James Dale and Belinda Powell, Gippsland Centre Against Sexual Assault	Crime crackdown: A collaborative campaign approach to reducing crime and creating safer communities across Victoria. Hollie Bone, Crime Stoppers Victoria	Youth Partnership Project: Merging theory with practice. Karina Chicote, Save the Children
4.30 pm	0:30	Perceptions of residential burglary and attitudes to crime reporting in Victoria: Crime rates, perceptions and reporting in two high-crime areas. Alistair Harkness, Federation University of Australia and Craig Gillard, Victoria Police	Intervening to alter high-risk behaviours in young recidivist offenders: Outcomes from the evaluation of the ReBoot Intensive Intervention Trial. Samantha Lyneham, Australian Institute of Criminology	Turning the corner: Translating evidence into practice. Jason Fagg, Bravehearts and Nadine McKillop, University of Sunshine Coast	Act@Work: Workplace culture change in the Grampians region. Melissa Morris, Women's Health Grampians	Addressing both real and perceived crime to create a safer City of Logan. Keely Larsen and Elyse Morrison, Logan City Council
5.00 pm	2:00	Networking reception

Friday 8 June 2018

Time	Duration
8.30 am	0:30	Registration
9.00 am	0:15	Day 2 opening remarks by Tony Bates, Lead Deputy Secretary, Police, Emergency Management and Corrections Department of Justice and Regulation. Dr Rick Brown Deputy Director, Australian Institute of Criminology.
9.15 am	1:00	Keynote: A more reliable glimpse: Re-positioning the offender in Crime Prevention through Environmental Design (CPTED) Rachel Armitage, University of Huddersfield Chair: Rick Brown
10.15 am	0:20	Morning tea
Session		Youth	Social cohesion	Tertiary criminal justice systems responses	Partnerships
Room		105/106 Plenary	104	103	102
Chair		Sharon MacDonnell	Georgia Quill	Samantha Lyneham	Rick Brown
10.35 am	0:30	Implementing an evidence-based evaluation tool: Enhancing services to prevent further offending. Karla Petersen and India de Vienne, Queensland Youth Justice	Innovative practice with Aboriginal young people involved with the justice system: The Ngudjoong Billa program from regional New South Wales. Carol Thomas, Juvenile Justice NSW	Moving from evaluation to practice: The case of the Southport Domestic and Family Violence Specialist Court trial. Christine Bond, Griffith University	Crime prevention outside of the criminal justice system: The under-utilised role of the community sector in breaking patterns of imprisonment. Mindy Sotiri, Community Restorative Centre
11.05 am	1:00	National Crowded Places	Police legitimacy: The role of migrant perceptions from 'back home'. Helen Forbes-Mewett, Monash University	The Criminal Justice Diversion Program: Addressing offending behaviour in first time offenders. Glenn Rutter, Magistrates Court of Australia	Where the rubber hits the road: Facilitating and maintaining effective partnerships in crime prevention. Ray Carroll, National Motor Vehicle Reduction Council
11.35 am		Understanding the National Crowded Places Strategy interactive session. Sharon MacDonnell, Department of Justice and Regulation	Summer in Alice school holiday campaign: Keeping our young people safe. Liz Olle, Northern Territory Government	Using technology to enhance the impact of protection orders for domestic violence. Christopher Dowling, Australian Institute of Criminology	Graffiti management partnership. John Hennessy, Municipal Association of Victoria

Crime Prevention and Communities conference—preliminary program

12.05 pm	0:40	Lunch
12.45 pm	1:00	Keynote: Crime prevention and problem solving in the United Kingdom Steve Trigg, National Police Chiefs' Council's lead for Crime Prevention Chair: Rick Brown
		Family and domestic violence	Social cohesion	Tertiary criminal justice systems responses	Partnerships
Room		105/106 Plenary	104	103	102
Chair		Belinda Powell	Anna Parle	Samantha Lyneham	Anthony Morgan
1.45 pm	0:30	Increasing the odds for safety and respect: Addressing the link between gambling and violence against women. Sandra Morris, Women's Health in the North	The potential of justice reinvestment to build safer communities. Jill Guthrie, Australian National University	The Court Integrated Services Program: Reducing reoffending through targeted interventions. Glenn Rutter, Magistrates Court of Victoria	Community Safety Networks Project: Building a shared approach to community safety in locally specific contexts. Leanne Sargent and Paul Naylor, Victoria Police
2.15 pm	0:30	HaiR-3R's (Recognise, Respond and Refer): family violence training for hairdressers. Youna Kim and Jenny Jackson, Eastern Domestic Violence Service	Connecting with vulnerable communities. Maria Bennett, Neighbourhood Watch Australasia	Assessing research and evidence on the ability of restorative justice to reduce youth offending. Ellie Piggott and William Wood, Griffith University	Wyndham City recognises that community safety is much broader than the presence or absence of crime. Kim McAliney, Wyndham City Council
2.45 pm	0:30	The complexities and challenges of building safer communities through a community development model that focuses on the engagement of men in the prevention of violence against women. Liam Dooley, White Ribbon Australia	Radicalisation and terrorism in an Australian context: Translating 15 years of evidence into practice. Margarita Dimaksyan, Federation University of Australia	Challenging misconceptions of sexual crime. The gaps between public discourse and empirical research. Patrick Tindmarsh, Victoria Police	Where have all the young offenders gone? Rick Brown, Australian Institute of Criminology
3.15 pm	0:20	Afternoon tea
3.35 pm	1:00	Final session and closing remarks from Keynote Speakers
4:35 pm		Conference close			