

You will be asked to rate the pronunciation and oral presentation skills of a non-native English speaker. As you listen to this person's speech see if you can understand every single word that he/she says.

By way of explanation we will define 'pronunciation' in a broad sense to mean the level or extent of comprehension and recognition by the listener, and 'understand' to mean the listeners ability to comprehend each word immediately, not having to guess at words.

Please circle a number from 1 to 7 on the following scale:

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Not well at all			Quite well			Extremely well

The speaker:

Speaks clearly/projects.

Speaks at the right volume.

Speaks at the right speed.

Speaks with correct sentence rhythm.

Speaks at the right pitch/inflection/tone.

Word stress and syllables are correct.

Speaks in understandable words and sentences.

Speaks with adequate grammatical correctness.

Holds the listener's attention.

Makes appropriate eye contact with the listener.

Has appropriate body language/stance.

Avoids distracting movements and gestures.