Monday 16 November

11.45am – 1.00pm
Microsoft Teams Live Event

Welcome and Official Opening

Dr Jeremy Wellwood – A/Chief Operations Officer, Gold Coast Health

Panel Session: COVID-19: What have we learnt and what's next?

Chair: Prof Helen Chenery - Board Member, Gold Coast Health, Chair, Research Committee, Gold Coast Health

Speakers: Ms Kimberley Pierce, General Manager, Gold Coast Private Hospital (formerly Chief Operations Officer, Gold Coast Health),

Dr Jeremy Wellwood – A/Chief Operations Officer,

Dr Adam Brand, Clinical Director Digital Transformation, Gold Coast Health

Dr Andre Wattiaux – Staff Specialist, Gold Coast Health,

Prof Paul Glasziou, Director, Institute for Evidence-Based Healthcare

Hear from senior leaders at Gold Coast Health, as they reflect on our health service response to COVID-19. They will discuss lessons learnt and emerging opportunities for research and innovation in the post-pandemic world.

Transforming Health Systems

Chair: Mr Sandip Kumar – Executive Director Transformation, Gold Coast Health

What do we mean by transformation? The importance of research, quality and innovation to the transformation of healthcare.

Hear from academics and researchers about how they are embedding innovation in their research. The role and potential of innovation to transform healthcare will be described. Different types of innovation will be highlighted in current research projects.

Innovating in Healthcare

Chair: Dr Sharon Mickan – Professor of Healthcare Innovations, Faculty of Health Sciences & Medicine, Bond University

Providing specialist palliative care in residential aged care

Dr Nicola Morgan -Staff Specialist Consultant Physician, Supportive and Palliative Care, Gold Coast Health

AI in Clinical practice: danger or revolution?

Dr Katya May – Researcher, Department of Emergency Medicine, Gold Coast Health

Establishing a regional specialist clinic using Telehealth

Dr Kelly Weir - Conjoint Principal Research Fellow – Allied Health Gold Coast Health & Griffith University

Evaluating the use of clinical decision Aids in ED

Dr Zoe Michaleff - Post Doctoral Research Fellow, Institute of Evidence-Based Healthcare, Bond University

Building Collaborations in Research

Chair: Prof Brigid Gillespie – Professor of Patient Safety, School of Nursing and Midwifery, Griffith University

How do we build successful research partnerships? Hear from some of our researchers and collaborators about how they have grown their clinical research partnerships.

Partnerships for real-world health services research

Ms Alison Farrington - Research Project Manager, Queensland University of Technology

CARE Network

Dr Shanthi Sarma - Psychiatrist, Mental Health, Gold Coast Health and Ms Grace Branjerdporn – Service Development and Research Coordinator, Gold Coast Health

From little things big things can grow: Our experience of building clinical research partnerships.

Dr Sharon Latimer – Senior Research Fellow (Patient Safety in Nursing) Nursing & Midwifery Education and Research Unit, Gold Coast Health

Translational Simulations

Dr Victoria Brazil – Professor of Emergency Medicine, Gold Coast Health & Faculty of Health Sciences and Medicine, Bond University

The Gold Coast Mental Health and Specialist Services Suicide Prevention Strategy– Our Collaborative Journey Towards Zero

Prof Chris Stapelberg – Professor of Mental Health, Gold Coast Mental Health and Specialist Services & Faculty of Health Sciences and Medicine, Bond University, Mr Matthew Welch – Clinical Nurse Consultant, Mental Health, Gold Coast Health
